

Executive Summary

This analysis examined churn behavior across 8,000 simulated SaaS users. Churn was identified at 21.3%, with revenue risk concentrated in medium-engagement Pro subscribers. Engagement level was the strongest churn predictor, with low engagement users exhibiting nearly double the churn rate of highly engaged users. Retention efforts focused on medium-engagement Pro users offer the highest return-on-effort opportunity for improving revenue stability.